

From: Wendy Combs

Sent: Monday, April 10, 2006 6:35 PM

To: Public Hearing

Subject: Bank of Walmart

There is too much retail in this city, there is too much government funding of corporate expansion nationwide. Whether it be for a building for United Airlines maintenance, or tax incentives for Bass Pro Shops to build retail outlets in an already crowded market.

Small Business is always being complimented for supplying over 50% of the tax dollars to federal, state and local governments. Please let small businesses be succesful.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Wendy Combs, Arizona